

On High Ground

EQUINE PHOTOGRAPHY | HORSE & RIDER SESSIONS

I figure, if a girl wants to be a legend, she should go ahead and be one.

—Calamity Jane

Welcome to On High Ground, a creative print and photography studio where the stories of legends are told.

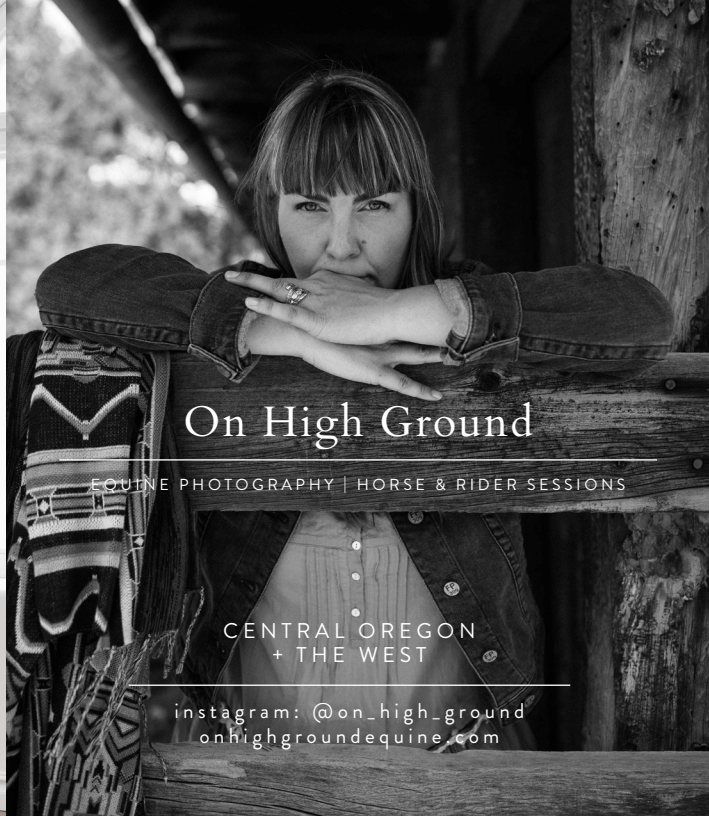

The work and services found here are inspired by the spirit of the “high” ground, from the magical dust of the desert floor to the legends of the sky, and all the horse saddles in between.

I’m Jacquelyn Tierney, the artist and photographer behind the OHG Studio, and I’m here to help you imagine, photograph, and experience the equine images of your dreams.

Giddy up Beauties!
